TAKEAWAY TIPS FROM REBECCA AND MICHAEL

Keep an open mind

Rebecca thought she knew which silhouette would fit her best. "But I was wrong! I finally tried on a mermaid gown and loved it," she says.

Take a time-out Right after the ceremony, the newlyweds slipped away to the cocktail area for a private moment to let it all sink in.

Maximize mingling

"I wish we'd done the photos before the vows instead of after so we could have spent more time with everyone," says the bride.

Help break the ice To encourage socializing, the duo created gathering spots, including a photo booth and an outdoor cigar lounge.

Invest in memories

"Everything was a blur! My biggest regret is not hiring a videographer," says Rebecca.
